

Community Calendar Alert

Wildlife Water Development Workshop

A Review of the Science, Policy, and Human Dimensions

- What: Two-Day Wildlife Water Development Workshop. This interagency-sponsored workshop is designed to bring resource managers from federal, state and local agencies, tribal governments, diverse interest groups, and the general public together to discuss wildlife water issues in the Southwest.
- When: November 3-4, 2004
- Where: Arizona State University, College of Law, Armstrong Hall
Located off of McAllister Avenue & Orange Street, Tempe, Arizona
- Activities:
- * Presentation of selected abstracts on research and land management
 - * Panel discussion with resource managers – Wednesday morning
 - * Technical sessions – Wednesday afternoon & Thursday morning
 - wildlife responses to wildlife waters
 - human dimensions and cultural resource impacts
 - new design and monitoring applications
 - * Online Workshop Website open to public comments - throughout workshop
 - * Public Hearing open to public comments – Thursday afternoon
- Costs: Attendance and participation is free. Workshop participants are responsible for their own transportation, meals and hotel costs.
- Sponsored by: The Wildlife Water Development Workshop is sponsored by the Bureau of Land Management, Arizona Game & Fish Department, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, National Park Service, U.S. Department of Defense, Sonoran Institute, and the Arizona State University, Center for the Study of Law, Science and Technology
- Call for Papers: Due September 1, 2004. An independent review panel is seeking research and land management oriented papers for presentation at the workshop. Contact: Dr. William Miller, ASU East at 480.727.1288 or by email at william.miller@asu.edu
- Public Contact: Arlene Tavizon at 623.580.5612 or by email at arlene_tavizon@blm.gov
- Media Contact: Christine Tinch of BLM at 623.580.5509

- ### -